Performance tables

You must include a link to the DfE school performance tables website. https://www.lkps.co.uk/standards/

Curriculum

You must publish the following information about your school's curriculum:

 the content of the curriculum your school follows in each academic year for every subject including Religious Education even if it is taught as part of another subject or subjects, or is called something else; https://www.lkps.co.uk/curriculum/

- the names of any phonics or reading schemes you are using in KS1; https://www.lkps.co.uk/reading-at-lkps/
- how parents/ members of the public can find out more about the curriculum your school is following. https://www.lkps.co.uk/curriculum/

Note: Your approach to the curriculum should also include how you are complying with your duties in the Equality Act 2010 and the Special Educational Needs and Disability Regulations 2014 about making the curriculum accessible for those with disabilities or special educational needs.

https://www.lkps.co.uk/school-policies/

Providing remote education

Schools are required to publish information to parents so that pupils and their parents know what to expect from their school if they need to self-isolate or local restrictions require them to remain at home. https://www.lkps.co.uk/covid-19/

A template for this can be found here. This template is not mandatory

Behaviour policy

You should publish details of your school's behaviour policy.

https://www.lkps.co.uk/school-policies/

The policy must comply with section 89 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006. Advice on developing and publishing your school's behaviour policy is available.

Safeguarding Policy

You should publish details of your school's safeguarding policy https://www.lkps.co.uk/school-policies/

The policy must comply with www.gov.uk/government/publications/keeping-children-safe-in-education .

Pupil premium

You must publish a strategy for the school's use of the pupil premium. Your strategy must be presented in the DfE template and be published by the end of December You may wish to plan your pupil premium use over 3 years but you must update the strategy every year to reflect your plans for the academic year after assessing the needs of your pupils, both new and existing.

You must include:

For the previous year

- how the pupil premium was spent;
 https://www.lkps.co.uk/the-pupil-premium/
- the impact of the expenditure on eligible and other pupils. https://www.lkps.co.uk/the-pupil-premium/

For the current academic year

A statement as to the school's strategy in respect of the pupil premium allocation for the current academic year ("pupil premium strategy"): DfE has published templates to help schools present their pupil premium strategy statements.

These templates are mandatory

https://www.lkps.co.uk/the-pupil-premium/

- the amount of the school's pupil premium allocation;
- a summary of the main barriers to educational achievement faced by eligible pupils of the school;
- how the pupil premium is to be spent to address those barriers and the reasons for that approach;
- how school will measure the impact of the pupil premium
- the date of the school's next review of its pupil premium strategy.

PE and sport premium for primary schools

If your school receives PE and sport premium funding, you must publish details of how your school spends this funding and the effect it has had on pupils' PE and sport participation and attainment. You must publish details of how you spend your PE and sport premium funding by the end of the summer term or by 31 July at the latest. The template can be accessed through the Association for PE and Youth Sport Trust websites. It is recommended that the template is used to record your activity throughout the year, as well as for publication at the end of the school year.

You must include the following:

- your PE and sport premium allocation for the current academic year;
- details of how you intend to spend your allocation;
- details of how you spent your previous academic year's allocation;
- how it made a difference to the PE and sport participation and attainment
- How you will make sure these improvements are sustainable in the future
- how many pupils within their year 6 cohort can do each of the following:
 - swim competently, confidently and proficiently over a distance of at least 25 metres
 - use a range of strokes effectively
 - o perform safe self-rescue in different water-based situations

Note: Attainment data for year 6 pupils should be provided from their most recent swimming lessons. This may be data from years 3, 4, 5 or 6, depending on the swimming programme at your school. It is essential to retain attainment data from swimming lessons in years 3 to 5 to be able to report this accurately in year 6.

Special educational needs (SEN) report.

If your school is a maintained school, then your governing body must publish a report on the school's policy for pupils with SEN, the Local Offer and the SEN information report. You can find details of what you must include in schedule 1 of the Special Educational Needs and Disability Regulations 2014, and section 6 of the Special educational needs and disability code of practice: 0 to 25 years.

https://www.lkps.co.uk/school-policies/

The report must comply with:

- section 69(2) of the Children and Families Act 2014
- regulation 51 and schedule 1 of the Special Educational Needs and Disability Regulations 2014

The report must be updated annually and include details of:

- your school's admission arrangements for pupils with SEN or disabilities
- the steps you have taken to prevent disabled pupils and those with SEN from being treated less favourably than other pupils
- access facilities for pupils with SEN
- Any arrangements you have for handling complaints from parents of children with SEND about the support the school provides
- the accessibility plan your governing body has written in compliance with paragraph 3 of schedule 10 to the Equality Act 2010 for:
 - o increasing the extent to which disabled pupils can participate in the school's curriculum
 - improving the physical environment of the school for the purpose of increasing the extent to which disabled pupils are able to take advantage of education and benefits, facilities and services provided or offered by the school
 - improving the delivery to disabled pupils of information which is readily accessible to pupils who are not disabled
