	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ for each governor who has served at any point over the past 12 months:               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• their full names, date of appointment, term of office, date they stepped down (where applicable) and who appointed them (in accordance with the governing body's instrument of government), https://www.lkps.co.uk/the-governing-board/</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ business and financial interests (as recorded in the register of interests) including:               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• governance roles in other educational institutions.</li> <li>• any material interests arising from relationships between governors or relationships between governors and school staff (including spouses, partners and close relatives); and</li> <li>• their attendance record at governing body and committee meetings over the last academic year. https://www.lkps.co.uk/the-governing-board/</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ DfE encourage schools to collect and publish governing board members' diversity data. Please note: Board members can opt out of sharing their information, including protected characteristics, at any given time including after publication. Schools must ensure that individuals cannot be identified through the publication of data, particularly when board member levels are low. There is no prescriptive way to collect diversity data from volunteers; this needs to be done on a voluntary basis. Schools may prefer to adopt a similar approach to</li> </ul>

	how they collate the diversity data of pupils.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Governing bodies should also publish this information for associate members, making clear whether they have voting rights on any of the committees to which they have been appointed.</li> </ul>
School opening times
	From September 2022, all state-funded schools are expected to publish their opening times on their school website and the total time this amounts to in a typical week (for example 32.5 hours). Schools should show the compulsory times they are open. This time runs from the official start of the school day (morning registration) to the official end of the compulsory school day. It includes breaks, but not optional before or after school activities. https://www.lkps.co.uk/
Attendance
	Schools are expected to have a clear school attendance policy on the school website which all staff, pupils and parents understand (non-statutory). Summary table of responsibilities for school attendance (publishing.service.gov.uk) https://www.lkps.co.uk/school-policies/
Admissions
	Community schools and voluntary-controlled schools If the local authority manages your admissions process, refer parents to the local authority to find out about your school’s admission and appeal arrangements. https://www.lkps.co.uk/school-policies/
	Foundation schools and voluntary-aided schools If the school’s governing body determines your admission arrangements, you must publish them on your website each year and keep them on your website for the whole school year. You must explain: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>how you’ll consider applications for each relevant age group at your school</li> <li>how many children the school intends to admit in each relevant age group (known as the published admission number, or PAN)</li> <li>what parents or carers should do if they want to apply for their child to attend your school</li> <li>your ‘over-subscription criteria’ (how you offer places if there are more applicants than places)</li> </ul> Schools must also explain how: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a parent or carer of a primary-age child can request that the school delay or defer their child’s entry to reception, and the process for requesting admission outside the normal age group</li> </ul>

	Appeals You must also publish a timetable for organising and hearing admission appeals for your school by the 28 February each year. This must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>include a deadline for lodging appeals which allows those making an appeal at least 20 school days from the date of notification that their application was unsuccessful to prepare and lodge their written appeal.</li> <li>include reasonable deadlines for those making an appeal to submit additional evidence, for admission authorities to submit their evidence and for the clerk to send appeal papers to the panel and parties.</li> <li>ensure that those making an appeal receive at least 10 school days' notice of their appeal hearing.</li> <li>ensure that decision letters are sent within 5 school days of the hearing wherever possible</li> </ul>
	You must also set out how your school's in-year applications will be dealt with by 31 August at the latest each year. If the school's governing body will manage in-year applications for your school, you must provide a suitable application form to enable parents to apply for an in-year place at your school. You must also provide a supplementary information form where necessary. OR If the school is to be a part of the local authority's in-year co-ordination scheme, you must provide information on where parents can find details of the relevant scheme.
	In-year admissions By 31 August each year, the school must publish how it will manage in-year applications for places (that is, applications for places in the middle of a school year, or to start in the September of a year which is not the normal point of entry). If the governing body manages those applications, the school must provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>an application form</li> <li>supplementary information, if necessary</li> </ul> OR If the local authority manages those applications, the school must publish a link to the in-year co-ordination scheme.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A written statement of your relationships education, or relationship and sex education (RSE) policy</li> </ul> https://www.lkps.co.uk/school-policies/
	Note: You must also set out how over time you will increase the extent to which disabled pupils participate in the school's curriculum, as part of your school's accessibility plan. (See SEND section) https://www.lkps.co.uk/school-policies/
You should publish the following (This is not mandatory)
	Alongside the content of their music curriculum, all schools are expected to publish information about their music development plan before the start of the 2024 to 2025 academic year. Schools should then update the summary before the start of each new academic year. A template is available to support with this.
Providing remote education
	Schools should consider publishing information about their remote education provision

	A template for this can be found here . This template is not mandatory
Behaviour policy
	You should publish details of your school’s behaviour policy. The policy must comply with section 89 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 . Advice on developing and publishing your school’s behaviour policy is available (updated Feb 2024).  https://www.lkps.co.uk/school-policies/
Safeguarding
	You should publish details of your school’s Child Protection policy. The policy must comply with www.gov.uk/government/publications/keeping-children-safe-in-education .  https://www.lkps.co.uk/school-policies/
Pupil premium
	You must publish a strategy for the school’s use of the pupil premium and recovery premium Your strategy must be presented in the DfE template and be published by the end of December each year. You may wish to plan your pupil premium use over 3 years but you must update the strategy every year to reflect your plans for the academic year after assessing the needs of your pupils, both new and existing. You must include: https://www.lkps.co.uk/the-pupil-premium/
For the previous year
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• how the pupil premium was spent;</li> <li>• the impact of the expenditure on eligible and other pupils.</li> </ul>
For the current academic year
	A statement as to the school’s strategy in respect of the pupil premium allocation for the current academic year (“pupil premium strategy”): DfE has published templates to help schools present their pupil premium strategy statements . These templates are mandatory. The template has been designed to ensure that your statement reflects the requirements in the pupil premium conditions of grant ..
PE and sport premium for primary schools
	If your school receives PE and sport premium funding , you must publish details of how your school spends this funding and the effect it has had on pupils’ PE and sport participation and attainment. You must publish details of how you spend your PE and sport premium funding by the end of the summer term or by 31 July at the latest. The template can be accessed through the Association for PE and Youth Sport Trust websites. It is recommended that the template is used to record your activity throughout the year, as well as for publication at the end of the school year. You must include the following: https://www.lkps.co.uk/sports-at-lkps-inc-pssp/
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• your PE and sport premium allocation for the current academic year;</li> <li>• details of how you intend to spend your allocation;</li> <li>• details of how you spent your previous academic year’s allocation;</li> <li>• how it made a difference to the PE and sport participation and attainment</li> <li>• How you will make sure these improvements are sustainable in the future</li> <li>• The percentage of pupils in their year 6 cohort who have met the national curriculum requirement to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ swim competently, confidently and proficiently over a distance of at least 25 metres</li> <li>○ use a range of strokes effectively – for example, front crawl, backstroke and breaststroke</li> <li>○ perform safe self-rescue in different water-based situations</li> </ul> </li> </ul>

	Note: Attainment data for year 6 pupils should be provided from their most recent swimming lessons. This may be data from years 3, 4, 5 or 6, depending on the swimming programme at your school. It is essential to retain attainment data from swimming lessons in years 3 to 5 to be able to report this accurately in year 6.
Special educational needs (SEN) report
If your school is a maintained school, then your governing body must publish a report about the implementation of the school’s policy for pupils with SEN, the Local Offer and the SEN information report. You can find details of what you must include in schedule 1 of the Special Educational Needs and Disability Regulations 2014, and section 6 of the Special educational needs and disability code of practice: 0 to 25 years. The SEN report must contain: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>the SEN information specified in Schedule 1 to the Special Educational Needs and Disability Regulations 2014 – statutory guidance is available in paragraphs 6.79 to 6.82 of the SEND code of practice: 0 to 25 years</li> </ul> https://www.lkps.co.uk/special-educational-needs/
The report must be updated annually and any changes to the information occurring during the year should be updated as soon as possible. It must include details of:

Time for Union officials
	Details of the amount of time off taken by staff who are union officials   Applicable to foundation and voluntary aided schools, where they have more than 49 FTE employees (for community and voluntary controlled schools, the responsibility to publish this lies with the local authority as the employer)

Requests for copies: If a parent requests a paper copy of the information on your school's website, you must provide this free of charge.

Additional best practice information:

You may wish to publish:

- Current whole school staff list <https://www.lkps.co.uk/staffing-information/>
- Individual class pages
- Safeguarding page with information linked to the DSL, Safeguarding Governor, e-safety and emotional support sites.
- Policy referring to provision for children in care and children previously in care.
<https://www.lkps.co.uk/school-policies/>
- After school and/or extracurricular activities <https://www.lkps.co.uk/personal-development/>
- British values statements <https://www.lkps.co.uk/british-values/>
- Attendance and the law

Is the website easy to navigate and use as an external stakeholder? An ideal is to be two clicks away from any information needed. Consider removing information that is out of date and no longer useful to 'your audience.'
